Advertising by Prominent Advertising Agencies

Two Advantages of Newspaper Advertising

By HERBERT N. CASSON, Vice President of the H. K. McCann Com-

paper advertising are:

1. A newspaper ad is timely 2. A newspaper ad is local,

Newspaper advertising gives you the time and the place and the ad. Almost any ad at the right time is better than aged local paper does have over the the most brilliant ad at the wrong people who rend it, time. A Johnny-on-the-spot ad is the ad that pulls.

As every salesman knows, the time to talk to a man is when he wants to hear you, not when he is hungry or cross, or when he wants to go to sleep. than years. We live from breath to and highly professional publications breath. What we are looking at right that come to us from afar. now is what we are thinking about Memory is a rope of sand, which the waves of time are continually washing away. Even the most terrible disasters are forgotten in a year. Even the bitterest griefs pass away like last year's leaves. Hardly anything lasts; so that the merchant who wishes to attract the attention of the public. must, above all things, be timely. I believe that the most effective of newspaper ads are those that follow the Local means me and mine. It means our little part of the wide, wide world.

As an old English ballad says: "If she be not fair to me. What care I how fair she be?"

The best of us are all so self-cen-ered that we really take more pleasure eading our own poorly made local paper, which mentions our names three A newspaper ad can be localized by aving signed to it the name of the soal dealer. We have found this to be quite effective, instead of the name an unknown company which has its adquarters a thousand miles away, newspaper ad can be signed by the ame of a local man—a man whom verybody knows, and whom nearly verybody trades with. everybody trades with.

But newspapers are more than timely and local. They are remarkably forceful and efficient for the reason that they are read largely during business hours.

A newspaper is not a play toy. It is mainly an amusement. A newspaper brings you customers rather than pros-pects. This is why newspaper ads land people—not postcards. This is why newspapers dig up folk who are in ear-neross, and it is only in newspapers that we can get the force and freshness of the present moment.

In the second place, newspaper ads are local, and this word "local" is a very important word. Local means where we live, Local means the people we know. Local means our own olk and our own home paper.

booklet or a catalogue.

There are some people who think that advertising is like the dropping of water upon a stone. They think that the main thing in advertising is to keep on, and keep on. This is certainly one way to achieve success. But it is very expensive. It takes a great deal of time. Heally efficient advertising requires that the main thing in advertising is to keep on. The properties of the control of the con ple we know. Local means our cwn folk and our own home paper.
We would sooner read the scrubblest that every ad shall move people to action. It requires that every ad shall make an impression. An advertiser who is king's coronation that was ever make an impression. An advertiser who is king's coronation that was ever make an impression. An advertiser who is king's coronation that was ever make as impression. An advertiser who is a king's coronation that was ever make his ads timely and flavored with drawn. We would sooner see one little local interest, can get unusually large.

Queen Mary Wanted Charades at Party

LONDON, Oct. 12 .- The Duchess of Devonshire, who shortly will be Queen Mary's hostess at Chatworth, has been informed by the Queen that the latter would like some charades arranged for in place of theatrical In these days of tangoes, et cetera, charades are absolutely dead among society's smart set and consequently the duchess found it impossible to find anyone willing to perform. Among those refusing were Miss Muriel Wilson and Lady Maud Warrender.

The duchess with the Queen's consent abandoned the idea, but none of those refusing to perform will be asked to meet their majesties.

To be economical and satisfactory, Furniture should be good-and good furniture COM-MANDS its fair price.

Hundreds of our customers have thanked us for convincing them that so-called "bargains at half price" could not be such qualities as they wished-

We carry large lines of goods at comparatively low prices, but in our store there's not a price so low that it does not represent genuine, reliable quality.

This enables us to give you a personal guaranty with every article purchased. We can safely promise that it will be replaced without question if the test of actual use shows any deficiency.

You are welcome to use an open account, with terms arranged to make the divided payments as easy as you wish. and this gives you every opportunity for a thorough test of quality before paying.
